Words of Wisdom

PARALEGAL GRADUATES WEIGH IN WITH THEIR ADVICE ABOUT THE PARALEGAL PROGRAM

"Ask questions. The teachers are extremely knowledgeable and will explain the answer. If you don't ask now, you may regret it later."

"Make time for yourself. Do what you need to do to get your work done, but make sure you have a social life outside of school and homework."

"Start a project as soon as it is assigned to you, even if it's just looking up resources or writing the introductory paragraph. That small bit of progress makes it easier to delve into later on."

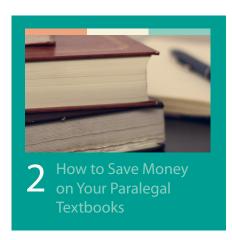

"A week or so before your exams, re-write your notes. This will refresh and reinforce the information in your memory."

4 Steps to Success in Your Paralegal Program

BY DANIKA WHITE, PARALEGAL COORDINATOR

There will be an adjustment period for every student entering a paralegal program. For some, it will be a relatively smooth transition from high school. For others returning to school after years in the workforce, the transition will require re-learning good study habits and balancing school with personal obligations. But every student who makes a commitment to persevere, overcome challenges, read the required books, and attend (nearly) every class, will succeed in school. [continued on pg. 3]

Advice From a Former Student

BY ASYA GILES

Start by taking a deep breath. You are embarking on a challenging but rewarding year. There will be lots of reading, note-taking, highlighting, and lectures. At times, you will feel overwhelmed and wonder how you are going to get through it all—but you will. The teachers are very knowledgeable, and the books explain the steps in laymen's terms. Seeking other students' input is a key part of learning. There will be times when discussions evolve into debates, but that is when you grow and develop into your future role as a paralegal. Even after years of experience working as a legal assistant and law clerk, I was amazed by how quickly the year flew by, and the knowledge I walked away with. Get involved and soak it all in!

However, being present in class doesn't mean keeping a seat warm and spending hours on social media. Being present means being mentally engaged and having a good attitude. Here are four tips for success in school:

- 1. Pay attention to general concepts. If you don't understand the general concepts, the details will not make sense.
- 2. If you don't understand something, ask your instructor. You are probably not the only one who is confused. Your instructors don't mind questions: questions show that you are paying attention.
- 3. If you don't read the required textbook and try to answer the questions at the back of each chapter, you are cheating yourself. This is your opportunity to learn as much as you can, and to clarify questions with your instructors.
- 4. Sharing a textbook may seem like a good way to save money, but when it comes time to review for an exam, who gets the book to study with? Joint custody causes disagreements and leads to poor exam marks. You paid a lot to go school; don't throw it away to save some money on a book.

Your attitude and commitment are everything. You have the power to succeed and join a profession you can be proud of. You also have the power to do the opposite, if you don't stay focused. The choice is yours, so choose wisely.

SQ3R Strategies for Reading

MUCH OF THE LEARNING THAT YOU DO IN SCHOOL IS THROUGH READING. HOWEVER, MANY STUDENTS STRUGGLE TO UNDERSTAND AND REMEMBER WHAT THEY'VE READ. THE FIVE STEPS BELOW WILL HELP YOU UNDERSTAND WHAT YOU READ AND REMEMBER THE INFORMATION MORE EFFECTIVELY.

1. SKIM (BEFORE READING!)

Skim the table of contents, all the headings, pictures and captions, tables and figures, bold type, key terms, review questions, and the chapter summary. Say all of these out loud. This creates a roadmap and lets your brain know what to expect and what the reading is all about.

2. QUESTION

(BEFORE READING!)

5. REVIEW

3. READ

Read a small chunk (1-2 paragraphs). Pause.

4. RECITE

Recite out loud, in your own words, what the section that you have just read is trying to convey. As you continue to read, write down the answers to the questions in your notebook. Remember, put the answers to these questions in your own words so that you can relate to this new information. This helps with processing and retention!
